Let's Meet With Our Trainer

MUHAMMAD SHAHZAR

He's a Co-Founder & CEO, EnablifyAI. A practitioner-led AI enablement specialist who works with leadership teams across corporate, regulatory, and institutional environments. His focus is on enabling real-world AI adoption by empowering decision-makers, not just technical teams.

CLIENTS INCLUDE

WHY THIS TRAINING MATTERS

- Most AI initiatives fail due to lack of early leadership ownership.
- AI success requires understanding real capabilities and limitations.
- Business strategy, teams, and technology must be aligned.
- High-impact AI use cases need clear prioritization.
- Poor leadership involvement leads to fragmented tools and low ROI.

This training equips leaders to:

- Use Generative AI confidently.
- Master prompt engineering.
- Identify real business value across functions.
- Ask better questions of teams and vendors.
- Make informed AI investment decisions.

By the End of the Training, Participants Will:

- Understand what Generative AI is and is not.
- Apply prompt engineering skills across leading AI models.
- Use AI tools for real executive tasks like strategy, analysis, and decision support.
- See practical AI use cases across key business functions.
- Identify high-impact AI opportunities for their organization.
- Leave with a clear, leadership-level roadmap for responsible AI adoption.

The focus is on practical decision-making and real business value, not tools for tools' sake.
