PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The role of a manager has evolved significantly. Today's managers are expected to lead people, manage performance, communicate effectively, and take ownership, often while dealing with ambiguity, pressure, and diverse teams.

This one-day workshop is designed to help managers develop modern managerial skills required to perform effectively in dynamic organizational environments. Through experiential activities, practical tools, and real workplace scenarios, participants will strengthen their ability to manage teams, drive accountability, and deliver results.

METHODOLOGY

- Experiential activities and simulations
- Case discussions based on real managerial situations
- Role plays and guided reflections
- Group discussions and learning debriefs

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- By the end of this workshop, participants will be able to:
- Understand the expectations and responsibilities of a modern manager
- Balance task management with people management
- Communicate clearly and confidently with team members
- Build accountability and ownership within teams
- Handle common managerial challenges with practical approaches
